

Overview

Black Vox 365 is the extended battery version of the Black Vox tactical Audio solutions, built for Law Enforcement and Investigators.

With 365 days of standby battery, the device can be deployed for upto 1 year in Sound activated standby Mode

Ideal for long term deployments

All Black Vox solutions, are built and tested in a range of environments which are based on difficult recording scenarios with ease of activation and deployment at the forefront of design.

Extensive situational testing includes car concealments and areas with loud environments where adjustment settings allow the device to home into human sounds and filter out nonhuman audio capture.
